-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --
Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Specification

1. The specification is objected to because of informalities such as: cross-reference information to parent application 09/781,630 filed 12 February 2001, now Patent No. 6,687,982 must be added at the first line of the specification, etc.

The applicant is requested to review the application thoroughly and make all appropriate corrections.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.
3. Claims 22 and 23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.
4. Claims 22 and 23 are rendered indefinite because they depend from cancelled claim 20 instead of pending independent claim 21.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

Art Unit: 1773

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

6. Claims 21-23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Johnson et al. (U.S. Patent 4,818,589).

Note: for the purpose of examination, claims 22 and 23 are taken to depend from claim 21.

Johnson et al. teach a paint transfer article designed to provide a desired colored coating to a substrate (column 3, lines 22-25). The article comprises a carrier layer, a color layer, and a reinforcing layer (Figure 1 and column 4, lines 64-66). The reinforcing layer acts as an adhesive means by which the article is adhered to the substrate (column 8, lines 12-16), i.e. the reinforcing layer corresponds to the adhesive layer (b) of instant claim 21. The color layer is typically composed of two layers, a colored base layer and a clear coat (column 6, lines 35-39). The colored base layer corresponds to the first layer (a) of instant claim 21 and the clear coat corresponds to the protective layer of instant claim 22. The carrier layer may be provided with a release coating (column 5, lines 45-54).

Regarding the limitation that the multilayer strip is "for use in fabricating two tone muntin bars", this limitation is an intended use of the strip. It has been held that a recitation with respect to the manner in which a claimed product is intended to be employed does not differentiate the claimed product from a prior art product satisfying the claimed structural limitations. Ex parte Masham, 2 USPQ2d 1647 (1987).
